

The New Indian Express

Monday, September 13th, 2010

Faculty development programme at Jain University

Jain University-Centre for Management Studies, CMS College, Bangalore, is organising a national-level faculty development programme, 'Work-Life Balance', on September 18. A day-long seminar, the theme is of interest for all employed people. It will primarily benefit the education sector with target audience mainly being educators, corporate trainers, counsellors, Professors, students and research associates. Registration for the event has begun and is ₹ 1,000 inclusive of all. Corporate registrations will attract a 10 per cent discount. Last date for registration is today ■