

Bengaluru Recycling Habba 2011

Think before you throw

1st - 10th Recyclathon Across communities in Bengaluru Who collects the most

A friendly competition amongst schools, colleges, corporate and residential campuses to promote waste reduction activities with prizes/awards for the largest amount of waste saved. Conceived and conceptualized by Radio Active CR 90.4 MHz, this event is primarily supported by the Jain Group of Institutions, flagged of by the Chairman of KSPBC.

Call : 080-22355490 or 9945686274
email : bengalurecyclinghabba@gmail.com

6th & 13th 8AM ReUse Mela Suresh Rao Learning Center, IV Phase Govt. School, Yelahanka New Town Bring, exchange and reuse stuff

We've all grown up wearing and using hand-me-downs. Now, BangaloreReuse, is helping all of Bangalore do the same thing through an E-Group that enables us to gift or receive various items freely. For the Habba, BangaloreReuse is collaborating with Rotary Club of Bangalore Yelahanka over two days.

Call Paul 98440 43583, Bhandare 89718 07539, Radhakrishna (Dr) 98442 45771 Join group online : <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/BangaloreReuse>

4th 7 PM Alternate Current Olive Beach, Wood Street Lamps from waste

An exhibition of upcycled lamps made from waste materials and abandoned objects. Led by lighting designer Jenny Pinto, 8-10 designers from Bengaluru have worked individually and together to quite literally, throw light on trash.
Call 080-41128400, +919945565483 for more information

EVENTS CALENDAR November

7th 2.30 PM Panel Discussion The Chancery, Lavelle Road Extended Producer Responsibility - Only a law or our duty

An informative, thought-provoking and critical discussion on manufacturer responsibility for life cycle costs of their products and associated packaging. Is it industry's duty to 'take back' its end-of-life products and create closed looped systems that prevent pollution and the inefficient use of resources? Moderated by Sajan Poovaya, Advocate and Chairman of FICCI. Amongst the panellists Almitra Patel, Member Supreme Court Committee for SWM; Sharat Chandra, Environmentalist and former Chairman of KSPCB; and leading members of Industry, Academia and Government.

Call +919916102848 or mail
bengalurecyclinghabba@gmail.com

9th 7 PM Re Flea Market Olive Beach, Wood Street

Fashion and more made from recycled material

Featuring innovative art, craft and upcycled products made from waste, trash and everything that we perceive as rubbish. Enjoy the transformation of PET bottles, tetra paks, paper, waste fabric, leather, glass and plastic into useful, fun and responsible products.

Call 080-41128400, +919945565483 for more information

9th & 11th 7 AM Trash Trail Daily Dump, Indira Nagar A guided tour that trails the things we throw, limited seats - book now

A unique day trip that follows trash from our doorstep to the little known recycling market and onto the city landfill. Meet the garbage collectors, rag pickers and segregators en route. A journey that will change your perspective on trash forever.
Call +919916426661 or mail dailydumpcompost@gmail.com to register.

10th - 13th Mela in Mall MantriSquare Mall, Malleshwaram A Mela all around recycling - Products, Information, Games & more

The Mall will come alive to celebrate the three R's with an exhibit of SWMRT's contribution to waste management in Bengaluru; a unique photo exhibition; stalls selling designer accessories made from recycled material; information and tools to segregate household waste; fun, interactive games and prizes for all age groups; and much more.

Call +919916102848 or mail
bengalurecyclinghabba@gmail.com

12th 11 AM Bugs Mother Earth, Koramangala A kids workshop to discover new friends, limited seats - book now

A children's workshop designed to make friends with creepy crawlies, so that the next critical step to 'composting waste at source' is an easy and natural progression. Early years education in bugs and their role in composting can make for a lifetime of responsible recycling!

Call +919916426661 or mail dailydumpcompost@gmail.com to register.

innovative art shows
recycling competitions
panel discussions
workshops
trash trails
interactive mall activities

The Solid Waste Management Round Table Bengaluru (www.SWMRT.com), supported by the Karnataka State Pollution Control Board (kspcb.gov.in) and Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (bbmp.gov.in) present Bengaluru's first ever Recycling Habba, from 1-14th November, 2011. Timed to coincide with National Recycling Week celebrated all over the world, this unique fortnight of events aims to create city-wide awareness and encourage adoption of the three R's (reduce, reuse, recycle) through innovative art shows, recycling competitions, panel discussions, workshops, trash trails and interactive mall activities for every age group.

EVENTS CALENDAR
November

OLIVE BEACH

