

Practical Electronics

Course contents are Identification of passive and active components, Importance of component specifications, Printed circuit board preparation for small electronic projects, Fault finding and servicing of electronic appliances like DC power supply, Radio receivers, Audio systems etc. Fundamentals of B&W and Colour television, Servicing of B&W television, Mini project ideas and constructions. Examination will be conducted and certificate will be issued for the successful candidates.