

Jain University collaborates with Japan International Cooperation Agency in “Happiness Project”

Centre for Research in Social Sciences and Education (CERSSE), Jain University has entered into an agreement with the Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) to collaborate in ‘The Happiness Study’. This study involves in-depth interviews with a representative sample of respondents and comparison of responses across regions. CERSSE will partner in the drafting of the report on the ‘Happiness Quotient’ (HQ).