

PH.D. / M.PHIL PROGRAMME (AUGUST 2012) INAUGURATED

The August 2012 batch of Ph.D. Scholars and 2012-13 batch M.Phil students joined the research programme with its formal inauguration on 27 August 2012. At a brief function held at the JC Road campus of Jain University over 125 Ph.D. and M.Phil scholars were introduced to the details of the Course work. Inaugurating the programme, the President of the Jain University Trust, Dr Chenraj Jain complimented the scholars on having embarked on an important intellectual journey. He encouraged the scholars to pursue research as a passion and not merely for securing a research degree. He emphasized the fact that securing a research degree should be a platform to expand the horizons of knowledge. He reiterated the commitment of the University to provide a congenial atmosphere for researchers to pursue their research studies. He complimented the faculty of the University for their research achievements and encouraged the research students to engage in a critical dialogue with their doctoral supervisors. Earlier, the Pro Vice Chancellor of Jain University, Dr Sandeep Shastri welcomed all the new research students and briefed them about the Vision of the University, its commitment to research and providing a conducive research environment. He drew attention of the scholars to the rigorous course work schedule and invited all scholars to take ownership for the learning process. The Pro Vice Chancellor introduced the Deans of Faculties who in turn introduced the Guides in their respective faculties. There was a brief interaction session between the President of the Jain University Trust and the scholars. The inaugural programme concluded with a Vote of Thanks by the Dean of Languages, Dr Mythili P Rao.
