WORLD SUICIDE PREVENTION DAY

Jain University, in association with Medico-Pastoral Association, is observing the World Suicide Prevention Day at the Centre for Management Studies, Jain University, Palace Road on Monday. Jain University's student guidance and counseling centre - Vishwas - is organising an inter-collegiate skit competition to motivate college students and teachers to get involved in spreading awareness on suicide prevention. The theme for the day is 'Strengthening Protective Forces and Instilling Hope'. Five other colleges are taking part in the skit competition.
