

Understanding Rural India – An Interactive Session

Centre for Indian Psychology, Jain University along with Youth for Seva (YFS) organizes an interactive session on 'Understanding Rural India' by Sri A.S. Anand of Krishi Prayog Parivar on 30 June 2013 at School of Graduate Studies, JC Road.

Sri Anand was the Chairman of Karnataka State Organic Farming Mission, which was the first of its kind in the country. He has done his masters in Agriculture and finding life in the soil continues to inspire him. It is indeed a privilege to hear him talk and discuss the challenges the farmer faces. In the interactive session he will be sharing his insights into the community knowledge and practices of rural India.

Krishi Prayog Parivar is an organization that has been promoting organic farming in Karnataka for almost 30 years. Sri Anand has been with the organization from the beginning and has an immense passion for the farmer.

Understanding Challenges in Rural India

We would like to invite you to attend a workshop about Understanding Challenges in Rural India by

Sri A. S. Anand, Krishi Prayog Parivar

When? Sunday, June 30th
3:30 – 6:00pm

Where? Jain College (JC Road campus)
34, 1st Cross, JC Road,
Bangalore-560025
(Next to Stock Exchange Building, near Near Townhall and Ravindra Kalakohetra)

Questions? Call Mallamma (897 1350003) or Vinodh (974 283 3317)