

Report on Felicitation to the Recipients of Research Incentives

In recognition to the research publications for the duration of June 2011 to May 2012, Quality Assurance Cell, Jain University organised a felicitation programme to the recipients on Friday, 26 July 2013. The programme began with a note on recognition and motivation constantly given at Jain University of right talent by Ms. Rekha Sethi.

The welcome address and introductory note was delivered by Dr. N Sundararajan, Vice Chancellor, Jain University. He placed on record the encouragement given by Dr. Chenraj Roychand, President, Jain University Trust to the field of research in the form of Research Centres and seed money provided to carry out the projects. He also stressed on the need to raise the bar of standards and laid norms with improved efficiency for the forth coming years.

Dr. Chenraj Roychand delivered the felicitation address where he emphasized on the need for quality research and raising the bench marks much higher. The monetary and facility support to improvise on quality was also mentioned.

Dr. Krishna Venkatesh, Director, Centre for Emerging Technology stressed on the need and support for research projects supported by government agencies.

58 recipients of the research incentive from various schools and research centre were felicitated by the Dr. Chenraj Roychand, President, JU Trust, Prof. K S Shantamani, Chief Mentor, JU, Dr. N Sundararajan, Vice Chancellor, JU, Prof. N V H Krishnan, Registrar, JU and Dr. N G R Iyengar, Director, IIAEM.

Dr. N G R Iyengar, Director, IIAEM made an appreciative remark on the initiation of the initiative and spoke of the gradual improvement of publications from index to bearing impact factors.

Prof. N V H Krishnan, Registrar, JU proposed the vote of thanks.