100 Years of Indian Cinema

The Indian Cinema is now a century old. It has seen a range of eras from black and white, silent movies back in the 30's, to the 3D movies released now-a-days. It has made a mark, in featuring varied themes in different Indian languages, thereby bringing together the diverse mass of the country. We, therefore intend to celebrate this cultural life stream of the nation that has existed for a century:

The Cultural Forum

Cultural forum, School of Commerce & Management Studies is a group of heterogeneous students who come together & work towards excellence in extra-curricular activities. We generate events which deviate & break the usual trends & make students respond with alacrity. It sets standards that are currently in vogue in the field of art, music, literature and so on.
