

GO GREEN, GROW GREEN!

The Interior Design Department of Jain University organizes “GO GREEN”- an event with active participation of many students to spread awareness about the importance of environment on 11 July 2014 at School of Graduate Studies, J C Road.

To mark the occasion a walkathon is organized to spread awareness about various environmental problems like wastage of water, cutting of trees, excess usage of plastic and other non-renewable resources. This will be followed by a street play.

Along with this, an exhibition of recycled products will also be organised in the campus to proclaim the mantra of REDUCING, REUSING AND RECYCLING.

Time: 8.30 am
