

Inaugural function for PG students

School of Graduate Studies, Jain University conducted an Orientation Programme to inaugurate the new academic year 2014-2015 on 17 July 2014. The session began with an inaugural address by Dr. Shanti Iyer, Center Head, School of Graduate Studies who introduced various curricular and co-curricular activities and achievements of the PG departments. The session also included presentations and addresses by the heads of the PG departments, and by the coordinators of the Women's Cell, the Eco-Club and the Counselling Cell.