

Jain (Deemed-to-be University), a research and innovation driven University invites applications for the position of Vice Chancellor for its University Office located in Bengaluru. Candidates with proven leadership track record, superior administrative capabilities as well as excellent teaching and research credentials are encouraged to apply.

Desired Profile

- Qualification and experience as prescribed by UGC.
- Understand and work towards the vision and mission of the University.
- Capable of enhancing the University to excel in providing best education, research & development, innovation, industry connect and entrepreneurship.
- Experience in planning, developing, organizing, directing and evaluating academic programs, policies, procedures and guidelines.
- Involve in overall leadership, direction and control in all academic areas, directing faculty-administrators in the evaluation and review of academic programs and curriculum development.
- Implement policies and procedures relating to academic programs, exercising seasoned judgment in determining the means, methods and resources necessary to achieve academic goals and objectives.
- Liaison with various state and central statutory and accreditation bodies.
- Oversee faculty appointments, promotion and tenure recommendations made by School Directors / Deans in accordance with University policy & procedures.
- Budget proposals for the University, allocating and reallocating funds and resources.
- Preferred age less than 62 years as on the closing date of receipt of applications of this advertisement.

Note: The online application form is available on <http://www.jgi.ac.in/Administration-Post>. Interested applicants are also requested to email their updated curriculum vitae along with a write-up about the strategic direction on growth plan for Jain (Deemed-to-be University) for the next 5 years (500 to 1000 words), and a recent passport size color photograph to hr@jgi.ac.in within 15 (fifteen) days from the date of publication of this advertisement. For more details, contact +91 80 4343 2500.