About School of Computer Science and Engineering

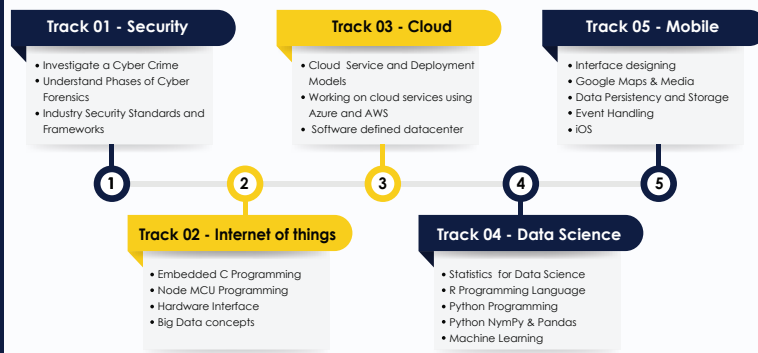

Advent of new age technologies has spearheaded globalization and industrial transformation. So has the job market for IT industry. Discerning the need of the new-age learners, Jain University offers new age B. Tech and M. Tech Programs in fast-growing streams of the industry since 2005 with the state-of-the-art facilities and new-age curriculum. All programs are designed to match the needs of the industry and help students to be prepared for rewarding jobs of tomorrow. In addition to all the mandatory subjects of a traditional B. Tech, this specialized program offers in-depth practical knowledge of new-age technical domains.

The School of Computer Science and Engineering is a constitute school under the umbrella of Jain University, which focuses on the field of Artificial Intelligence, Data Science, Internet of Things, Cloud Computing, Mobile Application Development and Information Security. The experienced pool of faculty at CSE with a fusion of academics and industry experience have contributed in making the school vibrant.

The School has ideal computing lab facilities to train the students at different levels in the field of Computer Science and Engineering. The School has grown up to accelerate the pace of research and development in technical education and services to meet the requirement of industry and society at large. Thus, the objective is to promote research in the field of Computer Science and Engineering (CSE) to bring the benefits of the technological revolution to the society.

Objective of FDP

The main objective of the program is to form a bridge between the industry and academic institutions to appraise their knowledge and to impart the basic concepts and techniques to the potential technical teachers of all the engineering colleges in India. It is useful to enhance their skills for academic growth and also to make them conducive for research activity in the field of security, cloud, mobile, internet of things and data science.
