

25 September 2016*Applications are invited for Faculty in Metallurgical Engineering

Jain University is planning to start a B.Tech. course in Metallurgical Engineering with emphasis on manufacture of metals & alloys and applications. The course is designed to provide graduates, adequate knowledge & skills in the manufacture of Iron & Steel, Non-ferrous Metals & alloys, Fabrication, Heat treatment, metal finishing and the like. The subjects covered will include Minerals beneficiation, Extractive metallurgy, Metallurgical Thermodynamics, Physical metallurgy and Mechanical metallurgy.

Essential Qualification

- A Ph.D. from a leading Institute/University having industry experience in the above fields (requirement of Ph.D. degree will be relaxed in lieu of work equivalent to a Research degree for positions of Professor/Associate Professor).
- Faculty members with Teaching/Research experience in the above fields.
- Retired Faculty with experience, who are below 70 years of age.
- Scholars pursuing Ph.D. in the above areas can also apply

Expression of Interest (EOI) to serve as Full time or Part time or Honorary Faculty is invited. Send your detailed CV within 7 days along with the relevant certificates and a recent passport size photograph to:

Office of Strategic Communications & Human Resources

JGI Knowledge Campus

44/4, District Fund Road

Jayanagar 9th Block

Bangalore - 560 069

P +91 80 4343 2528/ +91 80 4343 2524E hr@jgi.ac.in