

THE HINDU

Monday, November 7, 2011

Graduates of Jain University with their certificates

Convocation

The first convocation of Jain University was held at Jain Global Campus recently. M.N. Venkatachaliah, former Chief Justice of India, was present at the ceremony. Degrees were conferred on 378 students who graduated in the fields of Commerce, Management, Economics, Biotechnology, Microbiology, Biochemistry, Physics, Psychology, Music, Dance, Mass Communication, English, Kannada and Sanskrit.

R. Chenraj Jain, President, Jain University Trust, awarded the toppers of class 2011 with gold medals. They are: Sherin Elizabeth, Megha R. Krishna, Byra Reddy M.V., Thejaswini M.K., Pranshu Maheria, Veena A. and Balamurali Krishna.

During the convocation address, Justice Venkatachaliah called upon the graduating students to work with passion and determination.

He said that the opportunities in India and the world are limitless and he called upon the young graduates to grab them and shape their lives and shape the world.

C.G. Krishnadas Nair, Chancellor, Jain University, N.V.H. Krishnan, Registrar, Jain University, and Sandeep Shastri, Pro Vice-Chancellor of the University, were present on the occasion.