

Saturday, January 28, 2012

Jain emerge champions

BANGALORE, DHNS: Half-centuries from Girija Shankar and Dinesh Borwankar helped Jain University College register an 82-run win over Presidency College in the final of the Dell-KSCA inter-collegiate cricket tournament. Batting first, Shankar (73 runs, 99b, 8x4) and Borwankar (88, 103b, 9x4) propelled Jain to a commanding 287 for eight in the allotted 50 overs. MK Girish (2/51) and Abhishek Reddy (2/58) scalped two wickets apiece for Presidency.

Presidency found a major contributor in Abhishek Reddy (65, 81b, 4x4) but his efforts were not enough as they were bowled out for 205 in 48.2 overs.

Brief scores: Final: Jain University College: 287/8 in 50 overs (Girija Shankar 73, Dinesh Borwankar 88, Shreyas Gopal 30, KV Siddarth 33; MK Girish 2-51, Abhishek Reddy 2-58) bt Presidency College: 205 all out in 48.2 overs (Abhishek Reddy 65, Aman Raj 31, Vijay Kumar 33, Sohail Semitha 29; Daniel Sequeira 4-40).

Man of the Match: Dinesh Borwankar (Jain College).

Singapore's tour of Bangalore: JIRS grounds: Singapore National XI: 298/8 in 50 overs (Chetan Suryawanshi 96, Kshitij Shinde 106, Munish Arora 32; Waseem 2-74, Raghavendra D 4-36) It to KSCA XI: 301/4 in 49.4 overs (D Raghavendra 105, D Nischal 152; Riaz Hussain 2-33).