

DECCAN HERALD

Jain university emerge champs

» Shreyas Gopal's fine all-round performance helped Bangalore's Jain University defeat Jamia Millia Islamia University, Delhi, by two runs and clinch the inaugural Toyota University Cricket Championship title on Sunday, reports DHNS.

Batting first, Jain were restricted to 122/6 with Gopal topscoring with an unbeaten 83 and Kaunian Abbas making 33. Abhay Negi (3/18) and Aashish Chopra (2/22) were among the wickets for Jamia. Chasing 123 for victory, Jamia fell short after requiring 14 runs off the last over.

Brief scores: Jain University, Bangalore: 122/6 in 20 overs (Shreyas Gopal 83 n.o., Kaunian Abbas 33; Abhay Negi 3-18, Aashish Chopra 2-22) bt Jamia Millia Islamia University, Delhi: 120/7 in 20 overs (Shivam Sharma 35, Surinder Dahiya 31; Shreyas Gopal 2-16).