Jain University lift men's title

Mounts 'A' claim women's crown

BANGALORE: Jain University overcame Christ University Flames 21-15 in the Senior men's final of the Bangalore leg of the NBA Jam 3x3 basketball tournament at the Sree Kanteerava Stadium here on Sunday.

Christ had a slender lead at 13-12 going into the final three minutes but Jain fought back valiantly and once they took the lead, there was no looking back as they pulled clear of their opponents. In the other final matches of the night, Christ XYZ came out on top after a tense contest against Viveks in the Junior girls' category.

In the Senior girls' clash, which saw two familiar foes in Jain A and Mounts A, it was

Mounts who ran away with the match to confirm their status as the best.

The Junior boys' final saw Surana College take on Christ University Team 6. Both were equally good, matching each other point for point until Surana boys found a little extra to run away with the match in the closing stages.

All four winners will travel to Mumbai to take part in the National finals against other winners from Mumbai, Delhi and Hyderabad.
