International sprinter Neil Contractor emerged the fastest swimmer at the ongoing All-India inter-university aquatic championship, taking the 50 metres freestyle gold in 24.81 seconds.

On Wednesday, the Gujarat University lad was challenged by Amamn Ghai (24.93), but he added the perfect finishing touches to his impressive start in the single lap race.

The corresponding event in the women's section was won by Sneha T who came home in 28.82 seconds ahead of Meenakshi VKR (29.25) and Anjali Nair (29.66).

VTU's Arvind M, returned a golden double, claiming the top spoils in the 200 metres individual medley and 100 metres breast stroke events.
