

THE  NEW INDIAN EXPRESS

◀ JAIN UNIVERSITY, JAYANAGAR

The Learning Resource Centre of Jain University had organised a "Donate a Book" programme to mark World Book Day on April 23. The programme was organised at JGI Knowledge Campus at Jayanagar also to educate and enlighten students about the values of reading. Academician, author and president of B M Sri Smaraka Pratisthana, P V Narayana inaugurated the programme. In his address, he stressed the importance of reading in this paperless era. "Whether it is an e-book or any other form of writing, what matters is reading and the assimilation of knowledge. You can create an imaginary world, a stage on your palm and enact the characters according to your imagination and fancy when you are reading," he said.