

THE HINDU

Two-day seminar on Narasimhaswamy

Staff Reporter

BENGALURU: Sahitya Akademi, in association with Jain University, is holding a two-day seminar to mark the birth centenary of poet K.S. Narasimhaswamy from Sunday at Jain College, 1st Cross, Jayachamaraja Road. Vice-president of the akademi Chandrashekhara Kambar will inaugurate the programme at 10 a.m.

M.V. Venkatesha Murthy and M.S. Murthy will present papers on 'K.S.Na's persona and creations', which will be followed by recitation of translations of his poems by S.M. Krishna Rao and T. Yal-lappa among others. On Monday, Sridhar Hegde Bhadrar, H. Girish Rao and Shridhar Balagar will present their papers on 'Kannada poetry tradition and K.S. Na.' and Sa. Usha, Chandrasekhara Talya, Jayanth Kaikini and H.L. Pushpa will speak on 'K.S.Na.: Creative response'.