

The New Indian Express

Monday, March 22nd, 2010

Composers' Day

The department of music, Jain University, Bangalore recently organised 'Composers' Day'. It was a musical tribute to renowned Carnatic music composers, Thyagaraja, Muthuswami Dikshitar and Shyama Sastri.

Dr B M Jaishree, HOD of Music at Bangalore University inaugurated the programme. The programme commenced with the traditional lighting of the lamp by the chief guest followed by invocation and chanting of Sama veda and Goshthigaana. The students and the staff of the department of Music enthralled the audience with their rendition. Some of the compositions were a swarajati in Bhairavi Raaga, Anandaamruthavarshini in Amrutavarshini Raaga, Govardhana Giridhaari in Durbari Kanada and many more ■