

THE HINDU

Friday, 5th February, 2010

Get ready for a festive day

Staff Reporter

BANGALORE: Jain University - Centre for Management Studies (CMS) will hold "Lasya", an inter-collegiate fest, from Sunday. The theme of the two-day fest will be "Intro Spectrum" representing diversity in thought, opinions and action.

The fest will be held at the Nimhans Convention Centre.

Theatre fest

"Abhinaya", a national-level theatre competition, is on at the J.S.S. Auditorium. About 35 troupes from Delhi, Mumbai, and Bangalore will stage plays in English, Kannada and Hindi. Professional theatre groups will stage plays such as Tajmahal Ka Tender, All's Well and Lanchavatara. The finals will be held on Sunday and will witness nine plays. One play each in Kannada, English and Hindi will be awarded prizes. On the occasion several prominent personalities, including actors Ramesh Arvind, Reema Lagoo, Yamuna Murthy and Devraj; theatre personality Hooli Shekar and chairman of Karnataka Nataka Academy Rajaram will be felicitated.