WORLD GEOPARK

The World GeoPark offers mangrove tours and it takes approximately 25 minutes by car from the resort to reach the Kilim river jetty from which the tour starts. There will be a boat tour to bring guests to places such as the fish farm and surrounding caves. At 500 million years, the Mat Cincang Mountain Range is the oldest rock formation in Malaysia and in 2007 was declared by UNESCO as a World GeoPark. A "World GeoPark" is a designation granted to an area unique for its geological heritage in terms of scientific rarity, aesthetic appeal and educational value. Its key functions are to protect the geological heritage, promote geology to the public and use geology, its natural and cultural heritage to promote sustainable economic development.

MAHSURI MAUSOLEUM

This historical site is located 30 minutes by car from the resort. The story goes as such - during the time of the powerful Sultanates, Mahsuri was said to be the most beautiful woman in all of Langkawi. Accused of committing adultery and following the old Islamic punishment for adultery, Mahsuri was tied to a tree and stabbed to death. White blood flowed from her wound, signifying her innocence. During her last dying breath, Mahsuri cursed Langkawi to seven generations of bad luck. Local villagers believe the legend to be true, citing the Siamese invasion of 1821 and failed crops.

CABLE CAR RIDE

Just 3 minutes drive away from the resort is the cable car station located at The Oriental Village, near PantaiKok. These cable cars take visitors all the way up to Mount Mat Cincang, Langkawi's second highest peak. Besides entering the village and passing through the pleasant oriental garden and souvenir shops, these rides offer a thrilling adventure for all.

UNDERWATER WORLD

Located approximately 20 minutes away by car from the resort is the Underwater World Langkawi - one of the largest marine and fresh water aquaria in South East Asia. Since the start of its operation on 26 August 1995, it has become one of the must visit tourist destinations in Langkawi.

PENANG

SHOPPING

Modern air-conditioned shopping complexes within towering skyscrapers, quaint old shops selling a variety of wares, colorful bazaars tucked away in quiet back lanes, ordinary looking shop fronts within whose dark interiors one may unearth rare collectibles, Penang is a shopper's paradise. The hustle and bustle of night markets with their blaring music and bright lights all combine to make shopping in Penang a unique and unforgettable experience. The main shopping areas in Penang are concentrated in Jalan Penang, LebuK Campbell, LebuKapitan Kling, LebuChulia and LebuPantai. Few places can measure up to Penang for its variety of goods and reasonably cheap prices.

SHOPPING MALLS

Gurney Plaza Mall, Up market, ultra modern mall with many international designer shops.

Komtar mall, Located in Komtar, the tallest building in Penang, located in Georgetown.

Prangin Mall, Large older style mall in Georgetown city centre, adjacent to Komtar

One stop mall, Older style mall near PulauTikus.

ISLAND PLAZA

Modern shopping mall in Tanjung Tokong, the nearest mall to the tourist area of Batu Ferringhi. Batik paintings can be found in galleries in Jalan Penang, Lebu Leith and Batu Ferringhi. Shops dealing in exotic curios can be found in Jalan Penang and Lebu Bishop. Here are some of the finest Chinese embroidery, lacquer screens and intricate jade and ivory carvings. Lebu Campbell, Lebu Kapitan Kling and Jalan Penang are good places to look for fine jewelry. The shops here offer a variety of jade, pearl and diamond jewelry items intricately set in gold. Pewter mugs, goblets, vases, figurines, ashtrays and coffee sets certainly make excellent mementos. These are available from leading department stores and shops along Jalan Penang. The latest range of photographic equipment, accessories, movie cameras and projectors are available at shops and department stores along Jalan Penang, Lebu Campbell and Jalan Burma. Leading department stores in the city and Asian Pottery in Tanjung Bunga stock an interesting variety of these items. Duty Free shops within the city offer cameras, radios and tape-recorders; TV and Hi-Fi equipment; calculators, electrical appliances, pens, lighters and watches; cosmetics plus a host of other items at most reasonable prices. Penang is also a haven for antique lovers in search of rare bargains. Tips for shoppers • Bargaining is still very much a part of life here: so don't be afraid to haggle over prices or ask for a discount especially at the smaller shops. • Ensure that you get a warranty card for cameras, watches and electrical goods •

PENANG MUSEUM AND ART GALLERY

Lebu Farquhar Built in 1821, the Museum houses a fine collection of old photographs, maps, charts and other historical relics. There are also Malay daggers (kris), Chinese furniture, embroidery and painting of old Penang. The Art gallery on the first floor displays the works of local artists and is the venue for special exhibitions. Opening Hours: Daily from 9.00am-5.00pm. Fridays from 9.00am - 12.15pm & 2.45pm-5.00pm.

KOMTAR

Jalan Penang The Complex Tun Abdul Razak, a prominent Penang landmark, houses Government departments, commercial offices, department stores, shops and restaurants. The 65-storey complex also contains theatres, squash courts and a geodesic dome which serves as a multi-purpose hall, while the 55th floor offers a panoramic view of the city and on clear days, also of Gunung Jerai in Kedah.

PENANG BRIDGE

The 13.5 km spectacularly beautiful bridge linking Penang to the mainland is the longest in Asia and third longest in the world. It features a 225-metre high middle span which allows 50,000 tonne ships to pass beneath.

PENANG'S FAMED BEACHES

Penang's northern shoreline is famous for its beautiful beaches of golden sand and deep blue seas. The Tanjung Bunga, Batu Ferringhi and Teluk Bahang beaches offer expansive stretches of glittering sand interspersed with secluded coves within the shelter of gigantic rocks. It is along this famous coastline that resorts of international standard have sprouted up, offering a host of water-based recreational facilities. However, Penang also has its fair share of secluded beaches where one may escape from the usual holiday-makers crowd. These are to be found off the beaten tracks and accessible only by jungle trails in the northwestern part of the island. If you crave for privacy, head for Teluk Duyung, Monkey Beach, Pantai Keracut and Pantai Mas accessible via the trails in the Pantai Acheh Forest Reserve from Teluk Bahang. The Pasir Panjang Beach at the South Western tip of the island is a good clean stretch for swimming and can be reached after a 25-minute hike over hilly land from Betong.

MENGGUANG DAM

The Mengkuang Dam, north of Bukit Mertajam, is the biggest in Penang with a storage capacity of over 23 million litres of water. To the public however it is also a splendid recreational area featuring landscaped gardens, recreational and watersports facilities. Its jogging tracks and walking trails are also popular.
