

THE HINDU

Monday, February 28th, 2011

SLICE OF LIFE: Winners of Samanvaya business fest

Samanvaya

Samanvaya, a business fest organised by Jain University-School of Graduate Studies, attracted seven colleges from different parts of the State in both commerce and management streams.

St. Joseph's College of Commerce won the overall championship by securing the top position in the competitions held in different categories including human resources, marketing, public relations, finance, best manager, and business quiz.