

Tanvi Singla - I Am She Miss Asia Pacific World India 2011

Felicitated by Jain University

Jain University organized the felicitation ceremony of teen beauty queen Ms. Tanvi Singla, 5th Sem BCom, Jain University for being crowned Miss Asia Pacific World India 2011 at the I Am She Pageant 2011. Tanvi Singla will be representing India at the Asia Pacific World 2011 pageant to be held in South Korea.

Dr. R Chenraj Jain, Chairman – The JGI Group and President – Jain University Trust applauded and felicitated her achievement. Dr. Easwaran Iyer, Dean – Finance & Commerce, Jain University, Dr. B T Venkatesh, Director – PU Programme, students and faculty members of Jain University were present at the ceremony.

Teen beauty queen Tanvi Singla mesmerized the ceremony by sharing her experience and her inspiring story spelled a spectrum of encouragement to all present there.

“I am deeply touched by the honour bestowed on me. It is a great privilege to be studying at Jain University. The encouragement and personal interest shown by the chairman and teachers has helped me to balance both education and modeling career.” said Tanvi Singla.

Explicating further the students and staff members of Jain University interacted and extended their best wishes for the upcoming International pageant.

Tanvi Singla pursuing her undergraduate degree at Jain University stepped into the glitzy world of modeling only after she participated in the Scooty Teen Diva Contests 2008. Tanvi has the privilege of working with ace fashion designers like Manish Malhotra, Manish Arora, Rohit Bal and Rocky S.