

CERSSE Collaborates with EUROPEAN RESEARCH NETWORKING PROGRAMME IN SOCIAL SCIENCES:

Centre for Research in Social Sciences and Education (CERSSE) of Jain University partners with premier institutions in the EUROPEAN RESEARCH NETWORKING PROGRAMME IN SOCIAL SCIENCES.

The other partner collaborators include South Asia Institute, University of Heidelberg; University of Sheffield, UK; University of Edinburgh, UK; Institute of Social Sciences, Delhi; University of Burdwan.

The Research Networking would cover Recasting federalism in India from the following perspectives:

- The changing nature of intergovernmental relations in a context of a highly regionalized party system
- The impact of neo-liberal economic reforms on centre-state relations and on fiscal federalism
- The impact of coalition government and the regionalized party system on the strategies for accommodating minority nationalism/regulate ethnic conflict

Centre for Research in Social Sciences and Education would contribute to the third module.