

Ice-breaker session for first year MA English students

Postgraduate Department of English, School of Graduate Studies, J C Road conducted an Ice-breaker session for the first year MA students on 12 August 2014. The entire programme was organized by the second year students who made the occasion memorable and delightful with fun games and cultural activities. The event was well attended as both the first year and second year students came in large numbers. The faculty members greeted the students. Students thoroughly enjoyed games like pick-and-act, musical chair, drawing on board blindfolded.
