

ENACTUS India National Competition 2015

ENACTUS 2015, National competition organized by ENACTUS India at Leela Ambience, Gurgaon, India was held on 21 -22 July 2015. It was a two day national event in which 88 teams participated from across the country. The students from ENACTUS team of School of Commerce and Management Studies, Jain University participated in the competition with two projects. This competition gave an opportunity to the students to present the results of our projects and to be evaluated by a distinguished panel of top executives from KPMG and other reputed organizations.

Day 1: Inauguration of National Competition 2015

A formal inauguration was done by a panel of top executives. There were two leagues:

- National league – Projects with larger impact and sustainability were presented
- Rookie league – Projects which are a year old with smaller impact and sustainability

The Rookie league was conducted and every team was given 17 minutes to present their project which included Q&A. Students from Jain University presented their project along with the other 13 teams across India. Both the projects Udyog Mitra and Abhyudaya along with an initiative Kumudhavathi river rejuvenation was accepted and appreciated by the panel. The day was concluded by the completion of Rookie league and opening rounds of National league.

Day 2: Results and closing ceremony

National league semifinals were conducted in the first half of the day for qualified teams from day 1, followed by a Panel discussion on Youth development. Three finalists from Delhi competed in the final round.
