ABOUT THE FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

Indian economy has seen several changes in the regulatory space in the recent past. We are moving with a host of changes which include Companies Act, 2013 which has been effective from 1st April 2014, Indian Accounting Standards Convergence effective for large companies from 1st April 2016 and Income Computation and Disclosure Standards effective from 1st April 2015. Goods and Service tax and Direct Tax code are in traction to add on. In this programme, an attempt will be made to explore the importance of the host of changes which would impact the teaching community. A platform is being provided for every commerce teacher to get insights about what is largely changing from an academic delivery point of view and to enable one to continuously update oneself with the available web resources. We have made an attempt to connect the changing laws with the important chapters in the current curriculum, thus creating link for the teachers to see the areas for focus. This will surely give the participants a true perspective about the changing regulatory environment and provide an opportunity to acquire knowledge of added value.

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAMME

- To provide an opportunity to the teaching fraternity for updating their knowledge about the changing laws and regulations in the field of Commerce
- To help teachers take a look at major academic implications of various amendments in Accounting, Auditing, Taxation, and Company Laws
- To appraise the academicians about Indian Accounting Standards, Companies Act 2013, Income Computation Disclosure Standard and Goods & Service Tax implications
- To provide insights about the resources available to get the updates and ever changing regulations
