

Jain University signs a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with FKCCI (Federation of Karnataka Chambers of Commerce & Industry) Bangalore

Jain University signs a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with FKCCI (Federation of Karnataka Chambers of Commerce & Industry) Bangalore on 17 January 2015 to foster Industry-Institution relationship and to effectively complement each other's effort in serving the cause of Industries and students and to facilitate growth and development of Industries.

A Governing Council consisting of representatives from both FKCCI and Jain University will oversee/coordinate in implementing the various activities as mentioned below:

- Utilize the infrastructure for research, projects, surveys on live, contemporary issues for mutual benefit
- Organize seminars / conferences, Management Development Programme (MDP), Executive Development Programme (EDP) - long term / short term for enhancing Skills / competency of employees
- Channelizing funds of Government/Non-Government Agencies for the projects on skill building, talent development, etc.
- Suitable placement for the graduates upon successful completion of the programme to the extent possible

The MoU was signed by Mr.Sampathraman, President of FKCCI and Prof. N V H Krishnan, Registrar, Jain University.