

MA in Public Policy and Governance

About the Course

- The two year Masters Programme in Public Governance and Administration (PGA) has been approved; is yet to be launched
- It aims at developing a better understanding of issues and processes relating to public policy making, governance and administration in India.
- The course content has a judicious mix of theory and field study
- The students of the course shall be exposed actual institutional processes through internship programme
- It would enable them to develop a real world understanding

UNIQUE FEATURES OF THE COURSE

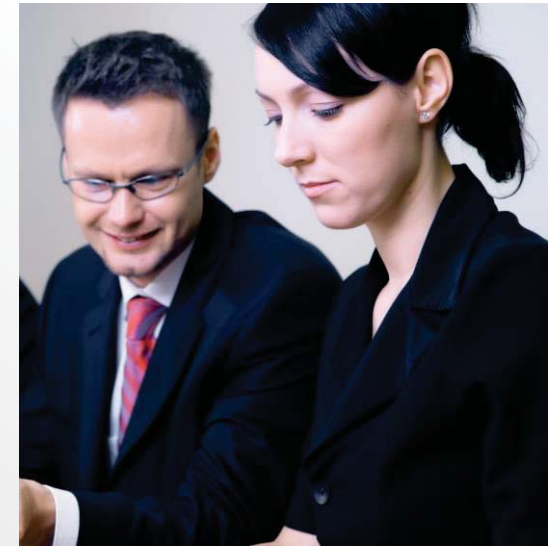

1 Well rounded curriculum based on latest research trends

2 Use of Quantitative and Qualitative Research techniques

3 Application of knowledge through Field work, Internship, Project, etc

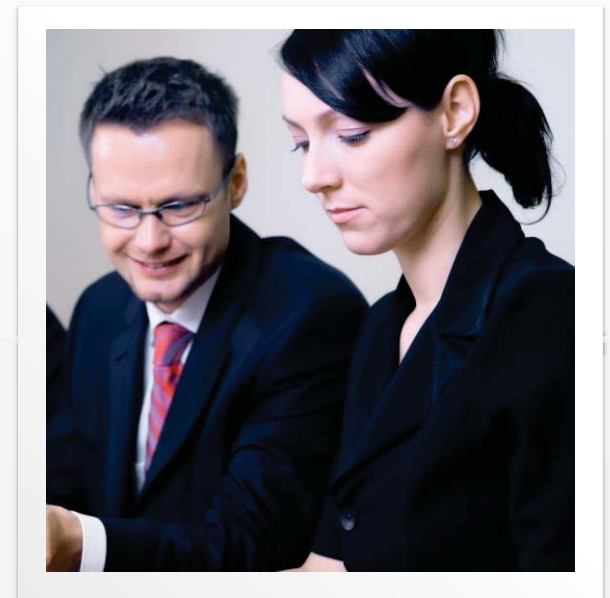

4 Research Orient Faculty

5 Intensive Training and Specialization for preparing students for Civil Services

Admission Process & Prospective Candidates

- Admissions based on qualifying examinations , entrance test and interview
- Approximate Student in-take : 20-25 Students
- In service officers to deputed by the State or Central government
- Fresher's to be admitted from those interested in a career in policy making & Civil Services

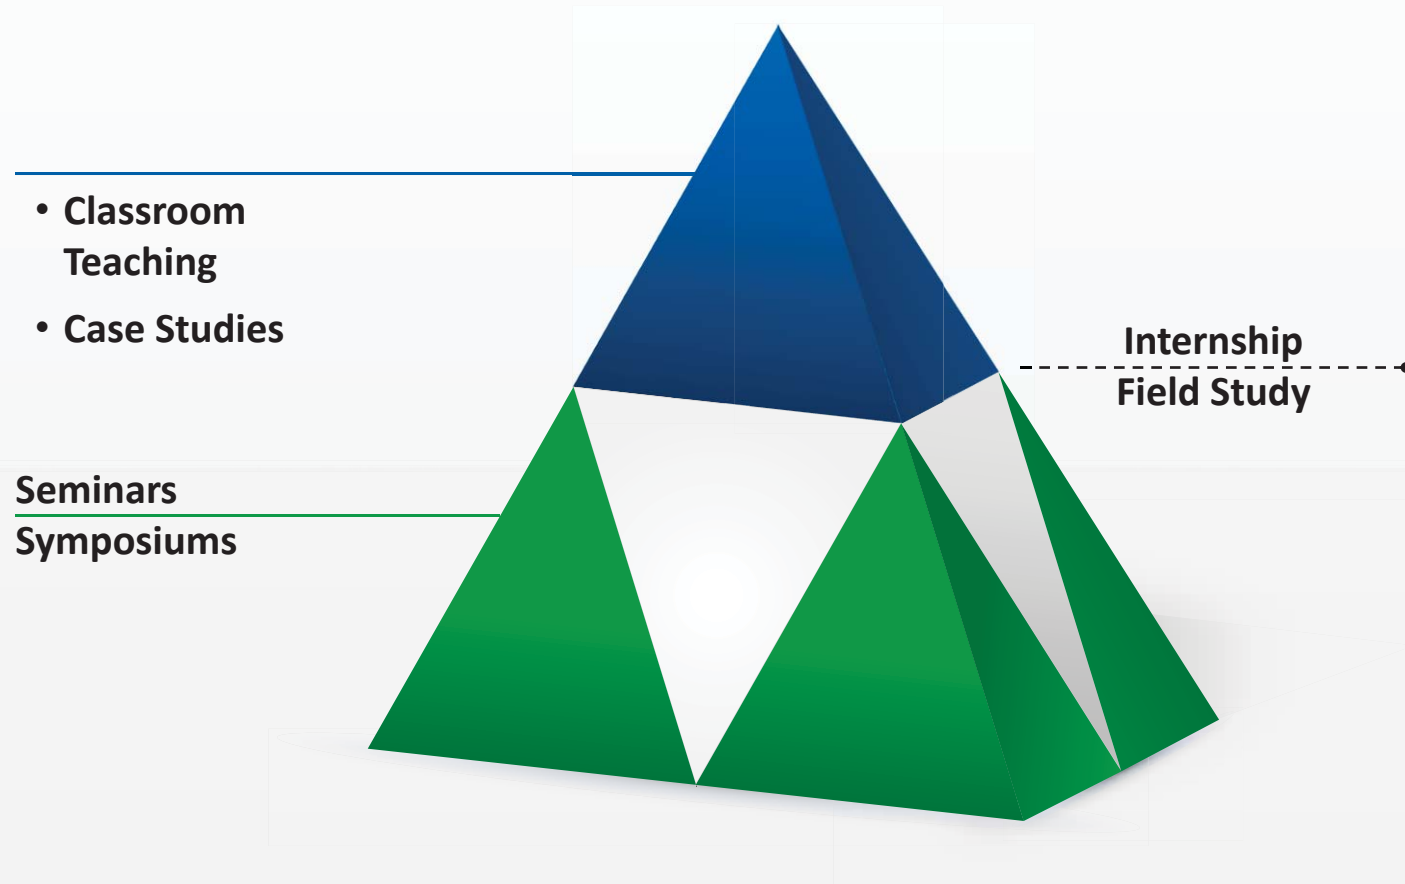

Dynamic Course Content

Dynamic and Contemporary course including :

- Public Administration
- Political Institutions and Public Policy
- Public Sector Reform and Management
- Democratic Governance (DG)
- Managing Governance and Change
- The Indian Administrative System
- Public Policy (PP)
- Evaluation of Public Sector Reforms and Policies
- Innovation and Reform in 21st Century Democracies
- E Government
- Civil Services

Unique Teaching Methodology

Career Options

