

Release of report on “Democracy in India: A Citizens’ Perspective”

Dr. Sandeep Shastri, Pro Vice Chancellor of Jain University is one of the Co Principal Investigators of the State of Democracy in South Asia Project. The report on ‘Democracy in India: A Citizens’ Perspective’ tries to assess people's understanding and perception of democracy. It is part of a comparative study on five South Asian countries that include Bangladesh, Nepal, Pakistan and Sri Lanka, besides India. The report was released at the India International Centre in Delhi on 6 August 2015.

Dr. Sandeep Shastri speaking on the Report at the release function

Dr. Pratap Bhanu Mehta, CEO and President Centre for Policy Research (third from left) and renowned journalist Ms. Neerja Choudhury (extreme right), spoke on the Report. Dr. Sanjay Kumar (Director CSDS and Co Principal Investigator) presided and Dr. Sandeep Shastri (Pro Vice Chancellor, Jain University and Co Principal Investigator) presented the Report