

UN CONSUL GENERAL ADDRESSES JAIN UNIVERSITY STUDENTS ON `LEADERSHIP IN THE 21ST CENTURY`

Jain University was privileged to welcome Mr. Philip Min, the Consul General of the United States based at Chennai to its Center for Management Studies campus on 28 January 2015. The Consul General addressed a select group of Undergraduate Business Management students and Faculty on `Leadership in the 21st century`. He later had an interactive session in which he responded to a range of questions not just on the theme of his presentation but on India- United States Relations and the Visit of President Obama to India. The Consul General was accompanied by Mr. George Mathew from the United States Consulate. Dr. Sandeep Shastri, Pro Vice Chancellor, Jain University and Prof. Dinesh Nilkant, Centre Head, Center for Management Studies, Jain University were present during the occasion.

Consul General Philip Min addressing the students

Consul General interacting with the students

Consul General being thanked by Dr. Sandeep Shastri, Pro Vice Chancellor, Jain University, as Prof. Dinesh Nilkant, Centre Head, CMS – Jain University, delivers the Vote of Thanks