Evening Today

'Sparsh' makes difference to people

Bengaluru: It was a fair with a difference. This mega community service fair Sparsh was oganised for students with the objective of making them aware of social problems and ways to overcome them with every passing day. The event was held by Rotaract Club of Jain University (Deemed University).

Four persons Kejal, Deepti, Siddharth, and Raghu Nandhan, were awarded prizes for their efforts in fields like Health, Education, Hygiene, Environment, Waste Management and Society.

Fifty five community service projects were organised.

Under this programme, participants focused on public health and donated ECG strips, haemoglobin injections, artificial limb transplantations and also conducted a free eye camp at an old-age home. Orphans were also benefited as workshops were conducted for them, apart from an yearlong computer application course and making them aware of various subjects.