

Evening Today

JAIN university supports 'Study in India' program

Bengaluru: Jain (Deemed-to-be University) witnessed a graceful presence of honourable delegates from the Syrian Arab Republic with an objective to have an educational tie-up of Syrian students under 'Study in India' scheme proposed by the Government of India. It was also a great opportunity for the Syrian Embassy to explore opportunities for training Syrian government officials.

The delegates, His Excellency Dr. Riad Kamel Abbas, Ambassador of The Syrian Arab Republic, Dr. Wael Awwad, Advisor to Ambassador, Embassy of The Syrian Arab Republic in India, Mr. Salam Socar, Protocol Officer and Incharge Ambassador's Office, Dr. Zein Al Abideen

Abbas, Researcher, Damascus University, Mr. Zolfeqar Abbas, Chief of Syrian Student Union in India, were welcomed with utmost hospitality and care.

Dr. Chenraj Roychand, President, Jain (Deemed-to-be University) with a motive to support India's mission in helping Syrian Arab Republic extended an educational support by meeting His Excellency Dr. Riad K Abbas at Syria earlier. A team of Syrian delegates paved visit to Jain (Deemed-to-be University) educational campuses located in Bangalore, India.